

PRIVACY POLICY – CHARITY EVENT SUPPORTERS

Our commitment to your privacy and confidentiality

ChallengeWorks is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of the supporters of our events (participants and donors).

ChallengeWorks supports and is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act 1988. This Privacy Policy contains information about how we collect and handle personal information. It also contains information on what to do if you have questions, concerns or complaints.

How we collect and use supporter information

We only collect personal information from our charity event supporters that is necessary for our work and helps us engage with you. We use your information to manage your support, process your donation and to respond to your comments and questions. We may also use your information for research purposes. The main way we collect personal information about you is when you give it to us, for example, when you complete a registration or donation form. At all times it is your choice on how much information you would like to provide in your support of ChallengeWorks events, and you can change or access these details at any time. Please be aware though that if you do not provide all the information we request, we may not be able to manage your support, process your donation or respond to your queries.

Below are some examples of information that we may collect and hold:

- > Personal details, like name and date of birth
- > Address and contact details
- > Payment information for donations
- > Information about any previous interactions you may have had with ChallengeWorks.

How we hold supporter information

ChallengeWorks takes the security and confidentiality of your personal details very seriously. We actively seek to ensure that all personal information we collect is protected from misuse, interference and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. This is done through internal data protection and electronic data transmission procedures, and all donations and communications made online via our websites or those of our partners are secure.

Disclosure of supporter information

Personal information is sometimes supplied to, or collected by, contractors who perform tasks on our behalf (for example donor platform providers). Due diligence is undertaken on these contractors to ensure that they comply with best practice data security and protection standards.

Personal information is sometimes supplied to the Charity Partner specific to the event that you support in order for them to communicate with you.

Where personal information is held that is no longer needed, we will take reasonable steps to ensure the information is destroyed or de-identified.

Accessing or correcting your personal information

We will always endeavour to ensure that the information collected is accurate. You can update or correct the information we have collected or let us know your preferences for how we communicate with you by calling (02)9943-5599 or emailing info@challengeworks.com.au.

Lodging a query or complaint

If you have a query or complaint about how we manage your personal information or would like to know more, please call us on (02)9943-5599 or email us on info@challengeworks.com.au.

If you have made a complaint, ChallengeWorks will acknowledge that your complaint has been received, provide you with our contact details and give you an estimate of when we can provide a response to your complaint.
